The Association of Families of Kidnapped and Missing persons in Kosovo – Metohija (hereinafter referred to as Association) was established on 14 March 2000 with its main office in Belgrade and sub-offices in Niš, Kraljevo, Gračanica, Kosovska Mitrovica and Velika Hoča. Unsuccessful, months-long individual attempts of families to find their relatives who disappeared in a situation of general violence in Kosovo – Metohija was the main impetus for this Association to be established.

Kidnappings and disappearances of our family members took place everywhere. They were kidnapped under threat on the streets, from their workplaces (hospitals, factories, offices, etc.), on the roads (from trains, buses, cars). Upon the establishment of the Association, our first task was to gather data on missing persons, circumstances of their disappearances and to make a list of kidnapped and missing persons based on reports of families of internally displaced persons from Kosovo – Metohija, where violence continued to spread like a wildfire.

In 2004, the Association began to publish and send free copies of the magazine Kidnapped Truth to the addresses of kidnapped and missing persons' families. Since its first issue, the data on the found (unfortunately) remains of the missing have been being published.

Enforced disappearances

Enforced disappearances in Kosovo – Metohija began (according to our records) in April 1998 and the last enforced disappearance was reported to us in December 2000.

Enforced disappearances are a form of intimidation that took place prior to mass internal displacements. As a result of numerous kidnappings, disappearances and murders of citizens of various nationalities, mass internal displacement took place and ethnic structure of the exiled resulted in the creation of an ethnically clean Albanian area.

A particular problem is a large number of missing persons who disappeared in the periods of general violence, who have not yet been found. The search for the kidnapped, missing and killed is still slow, resulting in modest return rates of internally displaced persons. At the same time, a small number of KLA members have been held responsible for causing general violence in Kosovo, which in turn resulted in enforced disappearances and internal displacements.

In search of assistance, we have contacted (beside domestic) many international institutions and individuals.

Since there have been no satisfactory results, we started the classification of data on missing persons, which has given certain results. Among those most important we include certain indicators of the roots of the problems that we have been faced with.

Causes of difficulties in the search for the missing

Large-scale violence across Kosovo-Metohija was provoked by the KLA members, who kidnapped and killed civilians, as well as police and army officers. The period between 23/04/1998 and 23/03/1999 was marked by the onset and escalation of major outrage. Mass abductions and murders that occurred in the summer 1998 gave rise to armed clashes between the KLA and military/police forces.

The period of aggression against the FRY, which was in progress since 24 March till 10 October 1999, resulted in an increased number of casualties within the police and military ranks. KLA members were directly involved in warfare, which resulted in a decreased number of civilian abductions and murders as compared to the previous period.

The end of the aggression against the FRY was followed by the withdrawal of the military and police, and by the subsequent arrival of international forces in the territory of Kosovo-Metohija. In the period between 11/06/1999 and 27/12/2000, KLA members were perpetrators of the previously unrecorded acts of violence in Kosovo-Metohija. With numbers of missing and killed civilians increasing on a daily basis, in a situation of wholesale violence, with permanent breaches of basic human rights and in the absence of any protection, approximately 300,000 people were internally displaced.

The number of families traumatized by the KIDNAPPING, DISAPPEARANCES AND MURDERS of their loved ones is enormously large. Organized KLA violence across the overall KM territory was the basic cause of INTERNAL DISLOCATION, which additionally traumatized the families of those kidnapped and missing.

The cases of disappearance and internal displacement can be divided into three periods:

- Disappeared from 23/04/1998 to 23/03/1999;
- Disappeared from 24/03/1999 – 10/06/1999;
- Disappeared and internally displaced from 11/06/1999 – 27/12/2000

We have analysed details regarding the circumstances of abductions, murders and internal displacements with relevant experts driven by a wish to upgrade the efficiency of the search for the missing. Acts of the kidnapping, disappearance and murders of civilians were fast multiplied and spread, thereby resulting in armed hostilities.

They were categorized as war crimes by the KLA members, who not only committed crimes against civilians but also engaged in an armed conflict with the FRY security forces. Evident are three groups of criminal offences: war crimes against civilian population; war crimes against wounded and sick persons; and war crimes against prisoners of war.

While perpetrators of those criminal offences and valid witnesses are known in a large number of cases, there have hardly been any results in terms of locating the missing or criminal prosecution of those responsible. The few cases that have been opened have resulted in the perpetrators' acquittal on various grounds, including the fact that many criminal acts committed by the KLA have not been categorized as war crimes.

Reasons for such a situation are numerous. A significant one lies in the approach of the Hague Tribunal and UNMIK judiciary towards crimes committed in KM. In many cases, the Hague Tribunal collected evidence of crimes committed against ethnic Albanians, whereas it ignored evidence relevant to KLA crimes against Serbs, national minorities and ethnic Albanians loyal to the FRY. Another problem is the question of responsibility on the part of international institutions and collective security system, which has become a specific Pandora's box for all international institutions present in Kosovo-Metohija.

Until the creation of the UNMIK Police unit in charge of missing persons, responsibility for the cases of disappearance and murder lay with the KFOR. However, the KFOR forces failed to organize any search for the missing, or to check any locations reported by citizens as potential illegal camps. Precious time was lost for the rescue of many abducted KM citizens, which is only one of the reasons why a frequently repeated question – why equal protection has not been secured for all KM citizens – still remains unanswered.

It appears that more importance was given to the ICTY operations related to the exhumation of suspected mass graves. Numerous bodies would have been quickly identified if the Hague Tribunal had not – immediately following their discovery – reburied, relocated or relabelled unknown corpses. That was not the case where indications existed of gravesites containing ethnic Albanians' remains.

There is no reasonable explanation why the UNMIK Police was never given operational documentation, criminal records and evidentiary materials of the ICTY forensic teams or those of other organizations (KFOR, OSCE).

By the same token, there is no reasonable answer to the question why cases were closed upon the identification of bodies. According to relevant experts, this was in contravention to legal and criminal requirements.

Furthermore, neither the identified perpetrators of criminal offences nor valid witnesses thereto provided any results in terms of finding the missing or bringing those responsible to justice. The few processes have often resulted in the release of criminals for various reasons. Criminal offences which are not categorized as war crimes are subject to other parameters, irrespective of the fact that they were committed by KLA members.

Pressures and media manipulations

In addition to traumas caused by the kidnapping, disappearance or killing of their loved ones, and those resulting from forceful removal from their households, families are often exposed to specific pressures and media manipulations. Activities of some civil society organizations have resulted in the following: equalization of criminals and victims; Absence of responsibility for crimes of terrorist and paramilitary organizations; Major departure from, and partial presentation of published data; Manipulating with data regarding victims with a view to gaining political or personal profit;

Since its foundation, this Association has been collecting data and addressing various institutions, yet with no success. Camps where KLA members once took abducted Serbs, members of national minorities and ethnic Albanians loyal to the state have never been disclosed, nor have the mass gravesites indicated by this Association ever been examined. Those for whom we have provided evidence to support their crimes have remained beyond justice, or worse still, they have been released from responsibility. The criminals are released, the disappeared are still missing. Following the 2014 pogrom, return to KM has been virtually stopped, and Serbs are perceived as the sole culprits.

Our families find it hard to bear the burden of GUILT THAT HAS BEEN INSTILLED in the Serbian people for decades now. The latest pressure on Serbian families comes in the form of insistence on reconciliation with Albanian families. In the vain hope that the missing will be found and with a feeling of guilt being instilled in them, the families have become insecure, exhausted by the search for true causes of their hardship, and worried about some new accusations, given that the current appeals for reconciliation are but another hardship. Could anybody ever expect consent to reconciliation from people who are still in the search for their relatives and who, with each day behind them, lose the hope that they will ever reach the truth and justice? What are the true objectives of those pleading for reconciliation if they know that kidnappers and murderers are still at large? Can anybody at all speak in favour of reconciliation to people who are still awaiting information about the destiny of their loved ones, and at the same time fear that their organs may have been traded?

All that has been said above raises suspicions that information about the missing remains vague with a certain intention. Initial analytical evaluations of collected data already disclose undesired truths. The truth looms out from the analyses, reluctance to answer some embarrassing questions, evasion of criminal offences categorization, instilling of guilt, burning of mass gravesites, acquittal of criminals, manipulating with data. There is no, and there can never be, reconciliation before responsible KLA members are convicted of their misdeeds, and before all of those exiled from Kosovo-Metohija have returned to their restored households.

The causes of collective trouble do not lie in animosities between the Serbian and Albanian populations, but in the KLA actions. Their goal – which has largely been accomplished – was an ETHNICALLY CLEAN territory of Kosovo-Metohija!

Број породица које су доживеле трауму киднаповања, нестанака и убистава најближих сродника је огроман. Организовано насиље припадника ОВК-а широм територије КиМ је основни узрок интерног расељавања, које је за породице киднапованих и несталих нова траума.

Нестанке и интерна расељавања поделили смо на три карактеристична периода:

I - Нестали од 23. 04. 1998. до 23. 03. 1999. године

II - Нестали од 24. 03. до 10. 06. 1999. године

III - Нестали и интерно расељени од 11. 06. 1999. до 27. 12. 2000. године

Податке о околностима отмица, убистава и интерног расељавања анализирали смо са стручњацима, мотивисани жељом да унапредимо потрагу за несталима.

Киднаповања, нестанци и убистава цивила на КиМ се брзо умножавају и шире што доводи до оружаног сукоба. Категоришу се као ратни злочини припадника ОВК-а, који не само да чине злочине над цивилима већ улазе и у оружани сукоб са снагама безбедности СРЈ. Евидентне су три групе кривичних дела: рајсни злочини њрошив цивилној сшановнишштва, рајсни злочини њрошив рањеника и болесних и рајсни злочини њрошив заробљеника.

У великом броју случајева познати су и извршиоци кривичних дела и валидни сведоци, али и поред тога нема скоро никаквих резултата нити у погледу проналазака несталих, нити у правцу кривичног гоњења. Малобројни процеси окончавају се ослобађањем злочинаца из различитих разлога, међу којима су и многа кривична дела почињена од стране ОВК-а која нису категорисана као ратни злочини.

Разлози оваквом стању су бројни. Међу значајним је однос Хашког трибунала и правосуђа УНМИК-а према злочинима извршеним на КиМ. Много је примера да је Хашки трибунал прикупао доказе о злочинима извршеним над Албанцима, истовремено занемарујући доказе о злочинима на КиМ које су припадници ОВК-а починили над Србима, националним мањинама и Албанцима лојалним СРЈ. Посебан проблем је питање одговорности међународних институција и колективног система безбедности, који је постао својеврсна Пандорина кутија за све међународне институције на КиМ.

За нестанке и убистава био је одговоран КФОР, све до формирања Јединице УНМИК полиције за нестала лица. Међутим, снаге КФОР-а нису организовале потраге за несталим лицима, нити су проверавали локације које су пријављивали грађани, као ни могуће илегалне логоре. Изгубљено је драгоцено време за спас многих отетих грађана на КиМ, што је само један од разлога због којих нема одговора на често понављано питање: зашто једнака заштита није обезбеђена свим грађанима на КиМ?

Изгледа да су биле важније акције Хашког трибунала који је спроводио операцију ексхумација суспектних масовних гробница. Бројна тела била би брзо идентификована да их Хашки трибунал није након проналазака поново сахрањивао, премештао и давао друге ознаке непознатим лешевима. То није био случај када су постојале индикације да се радило о шиптарским гробницама.

Нема сувислог објашњења зашто УНМИК полицији никада није предата радна документација, криминалистичке евиденције и доказни материјал форензичких тимова Хашког трибунала и других тимова (КФОР, ОСЦЕ).

Нема такође сувислог одговора ни зашто су случајеви затварани идентификацијом тела. Према тврдњама стручњака то је у супротности са правним и криминалистичким захтевима.

Ни познати извршиоци кривичних дела, ни валидни сведоци за велики број случајева, нису дали никакве резултате у погледу проналазака несталих и кривичног гоњења починилаца. Малобројни процеси окончавају се често ослобађањем злочинаца из различитих разлога. За кривична дела која нису категорисана као ратни злочини суди се по другачијим параметрима без обзира шти су их починили припадници ОВК-а.

Удружење породица киднапованих и несталих лица на КиМ (у даљем тексту Удружење) основано је 14. 03. 2000. године са главном канцеларијом у Београду и подканцеларијама у Нишу, Краљеву, Грачаници, Косовској Митровици и Великој Хочи. Безуспешни, вишемесечни појединачни покушаји породица да пронађу своје сроднике нестале у у ситуацији општег насиља на Косову и Метохији повод су за оснивање Удружења.

Киднаповања и нестанци чланова наших породица догађали су се свуда. Киднаповани су на улици, под претњом извођени из кућа, са радних места (болница, фабрика, канцеларија...), на путевима (из воза, аутобуса, аутомобила...). Први посао по оснивању Удружења било је прикупљање података о несталима, околностима нестанка и израда списка киднапованих и несталих, на основу пријава чланова породица интерно расељених са Косова и Метохије на којем се насиље ширило као пожар.

Удружење је 2004. године покренуло издавање часописа Ошеша истина, који се бесплатно шаље на адресе породица киднапованих и несталих. Од првог броја објављују се подаци о пронађеним (на жалост) посмртним остацима несталих.

Насилни нестанци

Насилни нестанци на Косову и Метохији почели су (према нашој евиденцији) у априлу 1998. године, а последњи насилни нестанак пријављен је Удружењу у децембру 2000. године.

Насилни нестанци на КиМ били су облик застрашивања, који је претходио масовном интерном расељавању. Због многобројних киднаповања, нестанака и убистава грађана различитих националности дошло је до масовног интерног расељавања, а етничка структура прогнаних резултирала је стварањем етнички чистог албанског простора.

Посебан проблем је велики број лица несталих у периодима општег насиља, који још увек нису пронађени. Присутна је и даље спорост у проналажењу киднапованих, несталих и убијених, што је и узрок скромном повратку интерно расељених. Истовремено је мали број припадника ОВК-а одговарао за изазивање општег насиља на КиМ које је узрок и присилних нестанака и интерног расељавања.

За помоћ смо се обраћали (поред домаћих) многим међународним институцијама и појединцима. Задовољавајућих резултата није било па смо започели класификацију података о несталима која даје резултате. Међу значајне убрајамо одређене показатеље узрока проблема са којима се сусрећемо.

Узроци отежаном проналажењу несталих

Опште насиље на КиМ изазвали су припадници ОВК-а, који су киднаповали и убијали цивиле и припаднике полиције и војске на КиМ. У периоду од 23. 04. 1998. до 23.03.1999. године забележен је почетак, а потом и ескалација општег насиља. Масовне отмице и убистава забележени су током лета 1998. године. Они су узрок оружаног сукоба између ОВК-а и припадника полиције и војске.

Период агресије на СРЈ траје од 24. 03. до 10. 06. 1999. године, када се знатно повећава страдање припадника полиције и војске. Припадници ОВК-а су ангажовани у непосредним ратним сукобима па број отмица и убистава цивила опада у односу на претходни период.

Након престанка агресије на СРЈ, полиција и војска се повлаче, а на територију КиМ стижу међународне снаге. Од 11. 06. 1999. до 27. 12. 2000. припадници ОВК-а су виновници до тада незабележеног општег насиља на КиМ. Број несталих и убијених цивила свакодневно се увећава и у ситуацији општег насиља и кршења основних људских права, а без икакве заштите, долази до интерног расељавања око 300.000 људи.

Притисци и медијске манипулације

Поред трауме киднаповања, нестанака и убијања блиских сродника и трауме прогона са својих огњишта, породице су изложене и посебним притисцима и медијским манипулацијама. Активности појединих организација цивилног друштва довели су до: Изједначавања злочинаца и жртава; Изостанка одговорности за злочине терористичких и паравојних организација; Великих одступања па чак и тендециозних приказивања публикованих података; Манипулисања подацима о жртвама са мотивима политичке па и личне користи.

Од свог оснивања прикупљамо податке и обраћамо се разним институцијама али без успеха. Као што нису откривани логори у које су припадници ОВК-а одводили отете Србе, припаднике националних мањина и Албанце лојалне држави, тако се не истражују ни масовне гробнице на које указујемо. Не процесуирају се, или што је још горе, ослобађају се злочинци за које прилажемо доказе о почињеним злочинима. Злочинци се ослобађају, несталих нема и даље, готово је заустављен повратак на КиМ након погрома 2004. године, а Срби се истичу као једини кривци.

Наше породице тешко подносе присутно вишедеценијско усађивање кривице које се спроводи над српским народом. Најновији притисак на породице српске националности је инсистирање на помирењу са албанским породицама. Узалудна нада да ће нестали бити нађени, притиснуте усађивањем кривице породице постају несигурне, посустају у тражењу правих узрока страдања, а страхују и над новим оптужбама јер позиви на помирење само су још један облик страдања. Ко уопште може очекивати пристанак на помирење од људи који још увек трагају за својим сродницима и који сваки даном губе наду да ће икада стићи до истине и правде. Који су стварни циљеви оних који позивају на помирење, ако знају да су отмичари и убице на слободи? Ко уопште може позивати на помирење људе, који још увек чекају податке о судбини својих ближњих, а стрепе да се трговало њиховим органима?

Све речено наводи на сумњу да се подаци о несталима замагљују са одређеном намером. И почетне аналитичке процене прикупљених података, откривају непожељне истине. Истина се пробија из анализа, из прећутаних одговора на непожељна питања, из избегавања категоризације кривичних дела, из усађивања кривице, из паљења места масовних гробница, из ослобађања злочинаца, из манипулација подацима. Нема, нити може бити, помирења док припадници ОВК-а не буду осуђени за своја недела и док се сви прогнани са Косова и Метохије не врате на своја обновљена огњишта.

Узроци страдања нису сукоби српског и албанског становништва, већ акције ОВК-а. Циљ је био, а у великој мери је остварен ЕТНИЧКИ ЧИСТО Косово и Метохија!

Simić Srećko Born: Opetruša; Abducted: 18.07.1998, Opetruša

On Friday, 17 July 1998, in the afternoon, the shots were heard in the neighbourhood of Opetruša. Everyone except Milutin and Stanojko hid in the Božanić's house in the village centre. The women hid in the basement of Mladen's house while men kept watch. After midnight on 18 July 1998, the KLA opened fire on the Serbian houses. Nemanja was wounded by explosion of the rocket-propelled grenade that hit Boško's house and he fell down in the courtyard. The other men went out to help Nemanja and at the same time about 40 armed KLA members burst into the Božanić's courtyard. First, they disarmed the men and then searched them. Afterwards, they drove them by Boško's tractor to the vineyard of the Božanić family which was situated above the village. Before long, they brought along Milutin, Stanojka, Desanka and Olga who had remained in the village. There from, they were transported in a tarpaulin truck to the village of Semetište, the municipality of Suva Reka, and ushered them into an Albanian house. The women were taken upstairs, while men were imprisoned in the cellar. For long hours, the women listened to the moans of the men who were beaten and tortured by KLA members. On Sunday, at 10 o'clock in the morning, Dragica, Dobrila, Dušanka, Slavka, Slavica, Desanka, Olga, Stanojka and elderly Milutin were transported to Zočište. On 21 July 1998, the women were imprisoned again together with the monks of the Monastery Saint Cosmas and Damian, the women from the village of Retimlje and elderly persons from Zočište. They were freed on 22 July 1998 through the agency of ICRC from Priština. The men from Opetruša and Retimlje, together with some other abducted Serbs and Roma from Orahovac, were seen for the last time at the KLA prison in Mališevo. At the end of July 1998, they were brought out of that prison and transported by bus in the direction of Priština. The case was reported to the Ministry of Interior, the Serbian Armed Forces, RCRS, ICRC, OEBS, the Hague Tribunal, UNMIK, EULEX, the War Crimes Tribunal in Belgrade and many other non-governmental organizations. The remains of eight men (Nemanja Mladen Božanić, Mladen Obrad Božanić, Novica Božidar Božanić, and Božidar Sava Božanić, Miodrag Živko Burdžić, Spasoje Živko Burdžić, Sreten Stanoje Simić and Spasoje Milan Banzić) were found in the mass grave Volujak, the municipality of Klina. On 18 July 1998, during the night, the families Kostić and Nikolić were attacked by the armed KLA members. The Serbs, 16 men in total, fired back defending their lives and century-old firesides. During the fire exchange, Todor and Živko were wounded. At about four o'clock in the morning, Živko's father Anđelko went out into the yard to check what had happened to Živko, when he was killed. At about 10 in the morning, the KLA drove up Sreten Simić from Opteruša. He brought a letter with the message for the Kostić and Nikolić families that they would be freed if they surrendered, otherwise they would be set on fire. As the army and police forces were not arriving to their rescue and in lack of any means of communication, they decided to surrender. The men went to the village centre and surrendered their weapons. The armed KLA members lined them up in the house of Ismet Beriša. Soon, the women who had remained at homes were brought along, too. Then, they searched all houses and permitted Anđelko to be buried at the Orthodox cemetery. After the burial, which took place at about 3 in the afternoon closely monitored by the KLA, the Serbs were returned to the village. They were lined up in the village centre. There, mothers, wives and sisters were separated from their sons, husbands and fathers: Kostić Živka, Kostić Petra, Kostić Lazarka, Kostić Angelina, Kostić Kosara, Kostić Ruža, Kostić Zlata, Kostić Momirka, Kostić Živoratka, Nikolić Mirjana, Cucurević Desanka and the bed-ridden Kostić Stanoja. They were banished from the village to Monastery of Saints Cosmas and Damian in Zočište. On 21 July 1998, the KLA captivated 35 civilians from the Monastery including the women from the villages of Retimlje and Opteruša, elderly persons from Zočište and the monks. They were taken to the camp in the vicinity of Mališevo. On 22 July 1998, owing to the action of the ICRC delegation, the whole group was freed and the witnesses survived. On 18 July, after separation from the women, the men were driven in the direction of Opteruša under the excuse that they were taking them to the KLA headquarters to sign the Protocol on weapons surrender.

Then, the Kostić family saw for the last time brothers Teodor and Lazar, Miodrag and Svetislav, father and son Mladen and Nebojša, Srećko, Živko, Saško, father Dimitrije with his sons Vekoslav and Miroljub and Nikolić Rajko and his son Cvetko. The men were seen for the last time in the KLA prison in Mališevo at the end of July 1998 when KLA members drove them in the direction of Priština together with men from Opteruša and other abducted Serbs and Roma from Orahovac. The case was reported to the MUP, Army, ICRC, OEBS, The Hague Tribunal, UNMIK and EU-LEKS, the War Crimes Tribunal in Belgrade and many non-governmental organizations.

The fate of the Kostić and Nikolić families was unknown until April 2005 when their mortal remains were found in the mass grave Volujak, the municipality of Klina. The mortal remains were delivered to the families on 13 October 2006. The mortal remains were destroyed by explosive. They were buried on 14.10.2006 at the Orlovača Cemetery – 11 Kostić and 2 Nikolić family members, while Kostić Mladen, and brothers Kostić Jugoslav and Saško, are still listed as missing.

For centuries, there has existed intolerance of a great number of Albanians towards the Serbs in Kosovo and Metohija which particularly escalated after foundation of the first League of Prizren in 1878. Such intolerance was transformed into terror and crimes during the world wars and other armed conflicts when most of the Albanian population took advantage of the presence of foreign armies in the country which arrived to these territories mainly as occupying forces and helped the Albanians to accomplish their goal – the creation of an ethnically clean territory where only the Albanians would be populated.

After the outbreak of armed revolt by the terrorist formations which were supported by many members of the Albanian minority at the beginning of 1998, during and after the bombing of the SR Yugoslavia /Serbia by NATO troops, the southern Serbian Province of Kosovo and Metohija has been under control of the international community according to the United Nations Security Council Resolution 1224. The international civil missions (UNMIK and EULEKS) and military forces (KFOR) have been operating in this zone. The Albanians declared unilateral independence of Kosovo in 2008.

Difficult situation of the Serbs reflects in continuous pressure, persecution, abductions and murders performed by the majority Albanian population. The most drastic example of Albanian crimes over the Serbs is continuous violation of fundamental human rights: violation of the right to education, employment and health care, the right to confession of Orthodox religion, ownership rights; restricted freedom of movement and, finally, the right to life.

The period from 1998 until 2000 is marked by a large number of abductions of the Serbs and other non-Albanian population as well as of ethnic Albanians loyal to the state of Serbia. Abductions fall under the most difficult form of crimes committed in Kosovo and Metohija and one of the most difficult legal and humanitarian issues that occurred during the wars from 1990 until 2000. It is necessary to identify and punish the inspirers, organizers, perpetrators and accomplices in the crimes of abductions. Failure to solve these crimes for many years resulted in that many families whose relatives were abducted are still awaiting information about the destiny of their loved ones. Thus, this crime persists.

The photography monograph published by the Association of Families of Kidnapped and Missing Persons in Kosovo-Metohija is a historic source, a monument in the form of a book and a lasting memory and reminder that all cases of abductions in Kosovo and Metohija committed by the KLA and other Albanian armed formations have to be solved. It is also important to emphasize that the purpose of this book is not to induce hatred among the peoples; it is created in order to present the truth of the tragic events in our recent past. Only by telling the truth about all the crimes that took place on the territory of former Yugoslavia in the last decade of the 20th century as well as in the 21st century (the March 2004 pogrom) can contribute to reconciliation of the peoples living in this region on healthy foundations

It is my honour and professional duty as the custodian of the Museum of Genocide Victims, the institution that has been intensively cooperating for almost a decade with the Association of Families of Kidnapped and Missing Persons in Kosovo-Metohija, to recommend this valuable photography monograph for publication.
